CHAPTER 903

July 16, 1952
[H.R. 2358]

AN ACT

For the relief of Joseph R. La Porta.

Joseph R. La
Porta.

60 Stat. 696.

Reimbursement.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That in the administration of benefits as provided for under the head "Civilian War Benefits" in the Federal Security Agency Appropriation Act, 1947, the Bureau of Employees Compensation of the United States Department of Labor is authorized to receive from Joseph R. La Porta a claim for compensation for disability allegedly sustained by him on or about August 26, 1944, as the result of a plane crash which occurred during a flight undertaken pursuant to a special program of the Air Force, United States Army, while said Joseph R. La Porta was serving as a cadet of the Civil Air Patrol, and such Bureau is authorized and directed to consider and adjudicate such claim under the civilian war benefits program, if claim should be filed thereunder within one year after the enactment of this Act, in the same manner as if the case of said Joseph R. La Porta had been within the coverage of such program at the time of his injury: Provided, That such Bureau is authorized to reimburse said Joseph R. La Porta (or any member of his immediate family) for any expense incurred prior to enactment of this Act and paid by him (or such member) for or on account of medical and other treatment and care required by reason of any injury found to be compensable under this Act, to the extent such reimbursement is otherwise cognizable under the civilian war benefits program.

Approved July 16, 1952.
